

Relationship Table

Pair	Relationship	Lifetime Test Justification
Cinema — Screen	Composition	A Screen belongs to its Cinema. If the Cinema is destroyed, its Screens are also destroyed.
Screen — Seat	Composition	A Seat belongs to its Screen. If the Screen is destroyed, its physical Seats are also destroyed.
Show — Movie	Aggregation	A Show borrows a Movie. If the Show is cancelled or destroyed, the Movie still exists and can be used in another Show.
Show — Screen	Association	A Show uses a Screen for a particular time. If the Show is destroyed, the Screen still exists.
Show — ShowSeat	Composition	ShowSeats belong to a particular Show. If the Show is destroyed, its ShowSeats are also destroyed.
Booking — Customer	Association	A Booking is associated with a Customer. If the Booking is cancelled or destroyed, the Customer still exists.
Booking — ShowSeat	Aggregation	A Booking references selected ShowSeats. If the Booking is destroyed, the ShowSeats still exist for the Show.
Booking — Payment	Association	A Booking uses a Payment. If the Booking is cancelled or destroyed, the Payment object does not have to be owned by the Booking.
Payment — UpiPayment, CardPayment, CashPayment	Inheritance	Each is a type of Payment and provides its own pay() implementation.
BookingService — Booking	Association	BookingService manages Bookings but does not own their lifetime. A Booking can exist independently of the service.